

Bi-Annual Conference on Career Opportunities for Minorities in Public Health

Commemorating the birthday of
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Presented by the Health Careers Opportunity Program (HCOP) of the UIC School of Public Health (SPH), Urban Health & Diversity Programs.

Everyone is Welcome!

The conference provides excellent opportunities to:

- Meet UIC SPH faculty, students, staff and alumni
- Learn more about public health masters and doctoral degree programs including the MPH, MHA, MS, PhD and DrPh; dual degree programs including the MD/MPH, MSN/MPH, DDS/MPH, MBA/MPH and DVM/MPH
- Learn more about the admissions process and financing your education
- Gain helpful insight on Graduate Record Exam (GRE) preparation
- Learn more about the paid Summer Residential Enrichment Program (SREP)
- Additional highlights: Learn more about public health issues faced by disadvantaged communities and the importance of cultural competency in public health.

Conference Date: Saturday, January 16th, 2010

Time: 8:30am-2:30pm

Location: UIC School of Public Health, 1603 W. Taylor, Chicago, IL 60612.

The conference, registration and lunch are Free. Free parking for the first fifty attendees to check in at the UIC SPH building by 8:30am.

Parking is available at 915 S. Paulina (across the street from the UIC SPH building).

Registration: Register on line at <http://www.uic.edu/sph/>. You can also fax completed form below to (312) 355-2556 or call (312) 996-5955 or email dwash5@uic.edu.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip code _____

E-mail _____ Phone # _____

Most Recent College _____ Major _____

Years of College Education Completed: 1 2 3 4 5+ _____ Degree received (if applicable) _____

Ethnicity _____ Gender _____