There are many exciting careers in the five disciplines that make up public health. However, few students and professors know about them.

That's why the UAMS College of Public Health is pleased to offer this informative one-day workshop.

WHERE: UAMS Fay W. Boozman College of Public Health, Room 3202

WHEN: April 23rd

TIME: 10:30am-3:30pm

Workshop includes

- Information on the five public health sciences
- Lunch & door prizes
- USB drive with workshop "toolkit" (videos, power points, and handouts)
- Travel expense reimbursement
- COPH and UAMS campus tour for those interested

To register for the FREE workshop, e-mail coph@uams.edu or call 1-866-330-9464 by April 17.
